Four suspenseful thrillers for summer | MPR News I read thrillers and crime fiction all year long. They cleanse my palate in the midst of some other heavy-duty reading from my book stack. But crime fiction can also be the perfect companion for summer.

Four Thrillers from First Look - Reviews by David Nusair Four Thrillers from First Look . Blood Gnome (July 20/05). As far as straight-to-video horror flicks go, you could probably do a lot worse than Blood Gnome. Having said that, though, the film is peppered with a whole host of problems - including cheap, low-rent visuals, awful supporting performances, and entirely unconvincing monsters - that eventually turn it into an interminable experience.
